

Bring Back the Cat

Ted Egan

S.

2. I
3. My

S.

Sir, you've now seen, with your own eyes, the con victs are quite out of hand._____ A must say I've changed, my out-look different, I re - al - ise now that you're right._____ I hus - band, I beg you do not take this step, don't lis - ten to this cal - lous pair._____

4. Si - lence! Good woman, I am in charge, don't get___ too big for your boots._____

S.

li-ber-al ap-proach has lo-wered our power, we beg you to take___ a firm stand._____ Let's see_ for my - self, we've been much too soft. We must_ dis - play Re-gal Might._____

Con victs are humans who've had a bad start, de - serv-ing of kind - ness and care._____

Len - i - ent treatment is all right in theory, but con-victs are_ such sa-vage brutes._____ I re-build the crank - mill, bring back the gag. Let's flog to sub - mis - sion each tru - cu - lent lag. The Un - der His Ma - jesty's charge I de - clare. Flogging's re - intro - duced now, ever - y - where.

S.

Jim Jones just save your life, that's ve - ry clear. So treat them with love and e - lim - i - nate fear.
 here - by de - clare that flo - ging is fine. The Cat 'o'nine_ tails_ makes them toe the line. The

S.

Cat, Sir, they need it, for they're___ a dis-grace. Let's show them who is in charge._____

Wo - men and men chil-dren as well. We'll show them who is in charge._____

You are the Governor, com-mis - sioned by God. Please show them who is in charge._____

Crank-mill, the gag, start-ing to - day. I'll show them who is in charge._____