I went to school at Eton
 That was ever so jolly nice
 My schoolchums run the country
 And they take my good advice
 For the classes are ordained by God
 It's only right He should
 In my role as Lord Chief Justice
 I work for the Common Good

Yes, I feel pity for the poor
 But we'd be better off without them
 Out of sight and out of mind
 So I don't have to think about them
 And criminals! Dear Lord
 Are just a waste of space
 It's my duty to remind them
 They're an absolute disgrace

So, in summary my dear friends
 I want you all to know
 Mutatis and mutandis
 I'll extract a quid pro quo
 Let's keep on hunting foxes,
 Shooting p(h)easants on the wing (REACTION)
 Yes, I invite you, one and all
 To join with me and sing

(All sing Chorus twice as Lord Trilby performs a whirling dervish dance.)
