

Think of me

For this song the convicts - whores, scumbags (minus Michael Reidy) and the children - are on the screen but also in the flesh. Annie & Bennett Strike, Marawilga and Stanton Campbell are NOT part of this scene.

Ted Egan

Chorus

Do you ever feel you're bound to this harsh land?
Do you ever find that hard to understand?
To know your background, learn your history,
Think of me, for I was you, and you are me.

When the floggers bared my shoulders to the bone;
When my screams and sobs had faded to a moan;
They salted down my wounds, then let me be,
It was I, and I was you, and you are me.

When you see the gracious buildings that I made,
The churches where the guards and soldiers prayed,
Where I was dragged to curse my misery,
Think of me, for I was you, and you are me.
