

The Kazoo Concerto

Mary Donnelly (Arr. George L. O. Strid)

♩=168 Bouncy

mf A

mf One day when I was feel-in' bored;

♩=168 Bouncy

7
I. look-in' for some-thing to do. So I walked on down to the mu-sic store and bought a brand new ka II.

12
I. zoo. It was shin-y & bright, a won-der-ful toy, just the size of my thumb. And when I put it II.

18
* mp 'Ode to Joy' from Symphony No. 9 by Ludwig van Beethoven
I. to my lips, I be-gan to hum- mm.. Mm
II. mp

mp legato

* Close to the "m" of "Hum" on beat 2

24

I. Mm

II.

29

I. Mm Mm

II.

35

B mf

I. mf I

II.

When I was walk-ing down the street hum-ming a lit-tle_ song.

41

I. ran in - to a_group of friends who want-ed to play a - long. So we walked right back to the mu-sic store and

II.

47

I. bought somemu - si-cal toys. And when we all be - gan to play, we made a won-der-ful noise:

II.

'Can Can' from the opera The Tales of Hoffman by Jacques Offenbach

53

I. f Mm Mm Mm Mm

II. f (Trombone sound) Mm Mm Mm

58

I. Mm Mm Mm Mm

II. Mm Mm Mm Mm

63

I. mf C Mm Now that peo-ple love to hear us play, they come from miles a - round. 'Cause they

II. mf

69

I. just can't seem to get enough of our cacophonous sound. But we just play for the fun of it. We'd

II.

75 (senza rit.)

I. play until we drop. 'Cause once we start to play kazoo's, we never want to stop!

II.

(senza rit.)

81 From Eine Kleine Nacht Musik by Mozart Hallelujah Chorus from The Messiah

I. Mm We never want to Mm no,

II.

87 (pop bags)

I. ne - ver want to Mm don't want to stop! Mm Mm

II.

8va

8vb