

REEDY RIVER IS COMING TO BROKEN HILL AND YOU CAN BE IN IT!

Reedy River is a classic Aussie folk musical, set in the aftermath of the Shearers' Union strike of 1891. It will play in Broken Hill's Theatre 44 on June 3 and 4 - and you can be part of it!

The directors are looking for actors, singers, musicians, and back-stage crew to be part of the production.

A heart-warming love story and rousing bush musical, Reedy River has been seen by at least 500,000 people since it first played in 1953. Its great songs include the rollicking Wild Rover and the romantic title tune. The large cast of outback characters runs from hard-working, yarn-spinning shearers to troubled young lovers and a barmaid who's seen it all.

Image: Harry Reade in association with New Theatre (Sydney) Inc.

Main cast required:

9 men ages 20s - 80s

2 women ages 20s - 40s

Acting and singing auditions will be held from Friday 24 to Sunday 26 February 2023.

To book an audition time, please send your name and contact details to reedy@looselywoven.org with BH REEDY RIVER in the subject line. We'll email you the script plus a couple of Australian monologues and a well-known song from the show to prepare (script in hand is fine; there's no need to learn the lines). You can learn more about Reedy River at looselywoven.org/reedy or email deb.hunt@me.com.

We are also looking for musicians to play a range of instruments - piano accordion, mouth organ, penny whistle, lagerphone, bush bass, guitar, flute, penny whistle.

Theatre 44, 189 Wills Street, Broken Hill NSW 2880 / theatre44.com/ / thestudio@westnet.com.au / 08 8087 9585