

Drowning in old clichés Greg Thomas (Arr. Wayne Richmond, 2023)

A D $\text{♩} = 190$ A⁷ D A⁷ D

Fl.

Vln.

B Verse 1

5 D G D

A. It was a dark and storm-y night not fit for man or beast. I was sit-ting a-round with a few good friends af-ter

Fl.

Vln. pizz

12 A⁷ D G

A. feast-ing on too much feast. We wereshoot-ing the bull and chew in'the fat with - out real-ly much to say. When I

Fl.

Vln.

18 D A⁷ D

A. re - al - ised ev-'ry-thing I said was just an old cli - ché. Well you can

Fl.

Vln.

C Verse 2

23 D G D

A. lead a horse to wa-ter but you can-not make him drink. You can put an id-ea in my head but you can-not make me

Fl.

Vln.

30 A⁷ D G

A. think. They same that time heals all your wounds well I wish it would hur - ry__ up!

Fl.

Vln.

34 D A⁷ D

A. — Si - lence is gol - den so why can't I shut up!

Fl.

Vln.

D Chorus G D

39

A. These old cli - chés are kil - ling me so sim - ple and con - cise. And I kick my - self right

S. These old cli - chés are kil - ling me so sim - ple and con - cise. And I kick my - self right

Fl.

Vln. arco pizz

45 A⁷ D G

A. in the butt_ for not ta king their ad - vice. Well I want to have my cak and eat it too and still now indup

S. in the butt_ for not ta king their ad - vice. Well I want to have my cak and eat it too and still now indup

Fl.

Vln. arco

52 D A⁷ To Coda D

A. fat. They say pro-cras-tin-a - tion is the thief of time but I'll _have to think a-bout that.

S. fat. They say pro-cras-tin-a - tion is the thief of time but I'll _have to think a-bout that.

Fl. pizz

Vln. pizz

E Verse 3

58 D G

A. Well a pen - ny saved is a pen - ny earned but what good's a pen - ny an - y -

62 D A⁷ D

A. way? A fool and his mon-ey are soon par-ted that's why I'm broke to- day._ Well I want to be a health-y

Fl.

Vln.

68 G D A⁷ D --> Chorus

A. ve-gi-mite but I just can't stand fruit! Beau-ty's on-ly skin deep, but who cares as long as she's cute!

Fl.

Vln.

F Coda

75 D G D

A. that. Well these old cli - chés are kil-ling me so sim - ple and con - cise. And I kick my-self right

S. that. Well these old cli - chés are kil-ling me so sim - ple and con - cise. And I kick my-self right

Fl.

Vln. arco pizz

81 A7 D G

A. in the butt_for not ta kingtheir ad- vice. I wan na stay slim be trim, eat right,stay light,still have the last po -

S. in the butt_for not ta kingtheir ad- vice. I wan na stay slim be trim, eat right,stay light,still have the last po -

Fl.

Vln. arco

87 D A7 D

A. ta - ter!_ They say pro-cras-tin-a - tion is the thief of time but I'll think a-bout that one la-ter. Well I'll

S. ta - ter!_ They say pro-cras-tin-a - tion is the thief of time but I'll think a-bout that one la-ter. Well I'll

Vln. pizz

92 G A7 D

A. d They say pro

S. d They say pro

Fl.

Vln.

I'd like to sing some more
but I'm runnin' out of rhymes!

96 G D A7 D A7 D

A. cras - tin-a - tion is the thief of time but I'll think a-bout that one la-ter.

S. cras - tin-a - tion is the thief of time but I'll think a-bout that one la-ter.

Fl.

Vln. pizz