

Drowning in old clichés

Greg Thomas (Arr. Wayne Richmond, 2023)

A D $\text{♩} = 190$ A⁷ D A⁷ D

Fl.

B Verse 1

5 D G D

It was a dark and storm - y night not fit for man or beast. I was sit - ting a - round with a few good friends af - ter feast - ing on too much feast. We were shoot - ing the bull and chew in' the fat with - out real - ly much to say. When I re - al - ised ev - ry - thing I said was just an old cli - ché. Well you can

10 A⁷

14 D G

18 D A⁷ D

C Verse 2

23 D G D

lead a horse to wa - ter but you can - not make him drink. You can put an id - ea in my head but you can - not make me think. They

27 A⁷

31 D G

same that time heals all your wounds well I wish it would hur - ry ___ up! ___

35 D A⁷ D

Si - lence is gol - den so why can't I shut up!

D Chorus

39 G D

These old cli - chés are kil - ling me so sim - ple and con - cise. And I

S.

These old cli - chés are kil - ling me so sim - ple and con - cise. And I

44 A7

S. kick my-self right in the butt_ for not ta-king their ad - vice. Well I

49 D G

S. want to have my cake and eat it too and still not wind up fat. They say pro-

53 D A7 To Coda D

S. cras-tin-a - tion is the thief of time_ but I'll___ have to think a-bout that.

E 58 Verse 3 D G D

Well a pen-ny saved is a pen-ny earned but what good's a pen-ny an - y - way? A fool and his mon-ey are soon par-ted that's why I'm broke to - day._ Well I want to be a health - y ve - gi - mite but I just can't stand fruit!

63 A7

67 D G

71 D A7 D --> Chorus

Beau-ty's on - ly skin deep, but who cares_ as long as she's cute!

F Coda

75 D G D

that. Well these old cli-chés are kil-ling me so sim-ple and con - cise. And I

S. that. Well these old cli-chés are kil-ling me so sim-ple and con - cise. And I kick my - self right in the butt_ for not ta - king their ad - vice. I wan-na

80 A⁷

S. kick my - self right in the butt_ for not ta - king their ad - vice. I wan-na stay slim be trim, eat right, stay light, still have the last po - ta - ter!_ They say pro -

84 D G

S. stay slim be trim, eat right, stay light, still have the last po - ta - ter!_ They say pro - cras - tin - a - tion is the thief of time but I'll think a - bout that one la - ter. Well I'll

88 D A⁷ D

S. cras - tin - a - tion is the thief of time but I'll think a - bout that one la - ter. Well I'll

92 G A⁷ D

d They say pro

S. d They say pro

I'd like to sing some more but I'm runnin' out of rhymes!

96 G D A⁷ D A⁷ D

cras-tin-a - tion is the thief of time but I'll think a-bout that one la-ter.

S. cras-tin-a - tion is the thief of time but I'll think a-bout that one la-ter.