

Gone to the moon

Music: Jonathan King Words: Alan Clarke
(Arr. Wayne Richmond, 2023)

2 pp

5 A Solo

S. Pri - ces are soar - ing, wa - ges are low.

9 S. Po - li - tic - ians ig - nor - ing Say - ing "Not so."

13 S. But large cor - por - a - tions, en - joy - ing a boon.

17 S. Chea - per to live on the moon.

21 B Tutti

S. Rents head - ing sky - wards, few pla - ces to let. With mort - ga - ges spi - ral - ling, man - y buy - ers re - gret.

29 S. Not e - nough pub - lic hous - ing, no more com - ing soon.

33 S. The home - less can sleep on the moon.

Rec. pp

Fl. pp

37 C

S. Long time a - go, life has be- gun, ev-'ry-one went to the sun.

Rec.

Fl.

45 D Solo

S. Who wants war with Chi-na?_ The peo-ple say "No."_ Let's al-ways be neu-tral,_ not stand toe to toe.

53

S. We're buy-ing the hard-ware,_ but the Yanks call the tune._____

Fl.

57

S. We'll bu - ry the dead_____ on the moon._____

Fl.

61 E Tutti

S. E-mis-sions in - creas-ing,_ and meth-ane on top. We're los-ing our plan-et,_____

67

S. this mad-ness must stop. So all those who pro - fit,_____ from the Fos-sil sil-ver

72

S. spoon,_____ send them all up_____ to the moon!

Rec.

Fl.